San Francisco FCU Reaches Agreement to Offer Members Free ATM Usage at More Than 500 Walgreens Stores Across California

San Francisco, Calif. (December 15, 2011) -- San Francisco Federal Credit Union has entered an agreement with Welch ATM to allow its members surcharge-free usage of cash dispensing ATMs in more than 500 Walgreens locations across California.

In an effort to provide the most convenience possible for its members, San Francisco Federal Credit Union has entered an agreement with Welch ATM to allow its members surcharge-free usage of cash dispensing ATMs in more than 500 Walgreens locations across California. Under the agreement, the ATMs will carry the credit union's brand at selected locations throughout San Francisco.

"People have already begun to notice our branding on the ATMs" says Steven Stapp, President/CEO of San Francisco Federal Credit Union. "The locations are in neighborhoods near San Francisco FCU branches. We're very excited about the opportunity to build awareness and recognition for the credit union. This agreement will not only help attract new members, but it will enhance the convenience of our services for existing members."

Credit unions work because the people who use their services do not just hold accounts with the institution, they are partial owners. As a result, they are part of creating and implementing innovations to enhance better service.

Selected San Francisco Walgreens ATMs will be easily recognizable with the San Francisco FCU logo. For store locations and hours, visit Walgreens.com.
