San Francisco Federal Credit Union
Surpasses $1 Billion in Total Assets
Total Membership Exceeds 39,000

SAN FRANCISCO (April 25, 2016) — San Francisco Federal Credit Union announced that as of March 31, 2016 it has reached a key business growth milestone of exceeding $1 billion in total assets. Steven Stapp, president and chief executive officer, made this announcement.

“We are excited to have reached this key milestone in the growth of the credit union,” Stapp said. “Our sustained growth is attributed to providing our members outstanding service with the appropriate financial solutions to help them reach their financial goals. We will continue to grow the credit union by focusing on what we do best, delivering great service and providing innovative financial solutions.”

San Francisco Federal Credit Union is a community-focused financial institution dedicated to helping each individual member achieve financial independence. In December 2015, the credit union introduced a revolutionary residential mortgage service called PoppyLoan. Providing up to 100% financing for homebuyers in the Bay Area, this service received overwhelming response from members and the community. The credit union has a history of providing innovative financial services, including the ITIN loans and the Mayor’s Youth Employment & Education Program (MYEEP) account.
