San Francisco Federal Credit Union
Announces its 2017 Youth Scholarship Program
Total Scholarships Available of $16,000

January 9, 2017 – San Francisco, CA. San Francisco Federal Credit Union announced its 2017 Youth Scholarship program for high school seniors in San Francisco and San Mateo County. This announcement was made by Jude Gogan, senior vice president and chief operating officer, San Francisco Federal Credit Union.

“Once again we are excited to offer scholarships to allow our youth members the opportunity to continue their education in college or vocational school programs of their choice,” stated Gogan. “This year we made it easier for our youth applicants to apply for a scholarship on the internet by simply going to www.scholarsappy.org/sanffcu.” A total of eight (8) scholarships at $2,000 each will be awarded.

San Francisco Federal Credit Union is a community-focused financial institution dedicated to helping each individual member achieve financial independence. The Credit Union has a rich history of supporting our community through our Community Shares contributions program as well as programs such as Youth Scholarships and the Mayor’s Youth Employment & Education Program (MYEEP) accounts.
