ROSA-LINDA ADVINCULA JOINS SAN FRANCISCO FEDERAL CREDIT UNION AS COMMUNITY RELATIONS MANAGER

SAN FRANCISCO (February 28, 2017) — San Francisco Federal Credit Union announced today that Rosa-Linda Advincula has joined the credit union as the community relations manager. Jude Gogan, senior vice president and chief operating officer, made the announcement.

“Rosa-Linda brings to the credit union an extensive level of experience in the area of community relations and development,” Gogan said. “She will play an instrumental role in maintain and developing relationships within the various communities we serve as well as with educational and civic leaders. Rosa-Linda will also manage our CommunityShare program, and the relationships with the many nonprofit organizations throughout the San Francisco Bay area. We are excited to have someone of Rosa-Linda’s experience to manage our community and business relationships so we can continue to grow and promote the values of the credit union.”

Prior to joining San Francisco Federal Credit Union, Advincula was the community services director of the Alameda Labor Council. She has a bachelor of arts in psychology from San Francisco State University.
